

It was a quality 15 boat fleet which included three sailors who made the trip from Tasmania that lined up for the first race in a light breeze. This wasn't how it stayed: the forecast NE wind was on its way. By the lunch break there was 18 to 20 knots blowing and all skippers abandoned their swing rigs and were reaching for their smaller rigs. It was exciting racing with the boats surfing the waves from the top mark to the bottom gate. At the end of the day 16 races had been completed and Dave Mitchell on 17 points had a comfortable lead from Colin Court on 41 points and Kyle Stewart on 44 points. The conditions were tough on boats and those with inadequate preparation were missing races, some lots of races.

Many thanks to Scott Condie and Owen Jarvis who shared the PROs duties and to all the KBRYC members who gave up their time to make the regatta a resounding success. Well done everyone, these events can't happen without your help and expertise.
